October is National Principals Month, and we are beyond grateful for our principal, who gives her heart to both Holy Redeemer School and St. Mary's School. Ashley wears many hats. She's a leader, mentor, cheerleader, and problem solver. From greeting students with a smile each morning to supporting teachers with wisdom and encouragement, and working behind the scenes to make sure our schools are thriving! Her dedication to Catholic education, her vision for our students, and her genuine care for every family make her an incredible gift to our communities. Thank you, Ashley, for all you do to help our students grow in faith, knowledge, and character each day! Happy National Principals Month!
